The 30-credit Master of Public Policy and Management (MPPM) Program is available online or on-campus and gives professionals with at least five years of full-time work experience an opportunity to advance their careers at a time and place that is convenient for them.

INFORMATION SESSION
Friday, February 16, 2018 • 12 p.m.
3911 Wesley W. Posvar Hall
LIGHT REFRESHMENTS PROVIDED

The part-time Accelerated Mid-Career Master’s Program provides an opportunity for working professionals to:

• expand their knowledge base,
• develop new analytical tools and professional skills,
• explore new ideas and theories, and
• interact with experienced faculty members and practitioners.

Specialized areas of study include the following:

• Public and nonprofit management
• Energy and environment
• Security and intelligence studies
• Urban affairs and planning
• Policy Research and Analysis
• International development
• Human Security

Join the director of the program, George Dougherty, at noon on Friday, February 16, to learn more about the program and how the online Accelerated Mid-Career Master’s Program can prepare you for a new career.

Pitt and UPMC employee education benefits can be applied to both on-campus and online MPPM course work.

To RSVP, visit https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/HZ9QDXT.

For more information, e-mail gspia@pitt.edu.